MISS SANTA CLAUS

With joyful heart, on dainty toes,
Her eyes as bright, each cheek a rose,
Well laden with her presents goes
The Christmas maid.

In Santa's task she claims a share,
And bears her gifts with thoughtful care,
While Love attends her everywhere,
A willing aid.

Oh, Santa, take a friendly tip,
Unless you want to lose your grip,
Don't let her make another trip
In all your days.

For she's a vision, so complete,
So captivating, fair and sweet,
That she has got you surely beat
A hundred ways.

A GREAT DAY.

This is Christmas day, the anniversary of the world's greatest event. To one day all the early world looked forward; to the same day the later world looks back. That day holds time together.—Alexander Smith.

By HARVEY PEAKE

NEVER look a gift in the cost mark.
All that glitters is not diamonds.
Mistletoe makes the heart grow fonder.
The gift deferred maketh the heart sick.
Belief in Santa Claus is the best policy.
It is a wise merchant who knows his own goods when they are brought back for exchange.
To give hideous gifts is human, to forgive impossible.
Gifts make the man, the want of them the fellow.
One Christmas bargain makes the whole of womankind spin.
Christmas bills are stubborn things.
Santa Claus is not as red as he is painted.
Buy gifts in haste and repent at leisure.
Uneasy lies the head that's trying to make twenty dollars buy forty gifts.
And thereby hangs a stocking.
Every Christmas tree must stand on its own bottom.
Gifts are seldom what they seem.

The Christmas Card.

About a hundred years ago the first Christmas cards were used. These were printed in London and consisted of a visiting card with the words, "A Merry Christmas," printed on it. Later the cards were made with a little scenery on them and a picture of the robin. This bird was used because he is called the English Christmas bird, and also "The Savior's Bird" on account of the old legend regarding its red breast. From this time on the cards became more numerous and of more varied kinds.

A Merry Christmas for Young and Old

Many families in Lamoille County will be made happy this year when they receive their Christmas Club checks from the Hyde Park Bank. They have been sending small amounts weekly or monthly to the bank and these little deposits with the interest accumulations now amount to several thousand dollars. This money will come back to them at the time of the year when they can make use of it to the best advantage.

All agree that this is the easiest way to save money, whether for Christmas presents or other expenditures, or to make a beginning of a permanent bank account, either for one's self or children. Small deposits are made at stated periods by each member and on December 10th the bank mails a check to every depositor for the full amount of his deposit, with interest added.

It is not generally understood how easy it is to become a member of the club and to share in the distribution of these Christmas checks, and the bank has prepared an artistic and instructive circular which tells all about the plan and how easy it is to join, even though living at a distance. Write for this circular, as it will prove very interesting, even though you do not wish to join at this time.

The 1916 club starts December 10th and everyone in Lamoille County or elsewhere is invited to join. There are no fees, dues or expenses of any kind incurred in becoming a member.

Address the President, Carroll S. Fage or the Treasurer, F. M. Culver, for further information about this unique and satisfactory method of insuring a Christmas fund. Your communications will be promptly answered with complete information.

Family Record Hard to Beat.

A family record that is hard to beat is that of a man who has died recently at Ilkeshall, Suffolk, England, aged ninety-six. He belonged to a family of 25 brothers and sisters. He is survived by two sisters, aged ninety-four and eighty-two, and one brother, eighty-four. He had nine children, fifty-one grandchildren, fifty great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.
